Senior Swing Dances receive funding from Macomb County Board of Commissioners

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

STERLING HEIGHTS - The Senior Swing Program continues at Freedom Hill County Park after $5000.00 was allocated to fund the dance program for the rest of 2006 by the Macomb County Board of Commissioners. Senior Dances take place twice a month with a $500 cost to cover the band and vocalist.

Jim Perna, President of the Parks and Recreation Commission and Chairman of the Senior Swing Society requested the funding after raising $8,000 this year for the dance program. "We are delighted that the Board is willing to assist us for the rest of this year."

Senior Swing dances will continue in 2007 with a small admission fee of $2. The Senior Swing Society will continue to take donations from businesses to fund these dances. Currently the Senior Swing Dances are free and about 150 seniors attend. The dances take place twice a month on the third and last Wednesday at 7 p.m. with the Tommy James Band performing.
